(b) The latest household table of 1991 census have not yet been released. However, according to 44th round of National Sample Survey conducted during July, 1988 to June, 1989 it is estimated that 86.1 per cent of dwelling units in Delhi are pucca.

(c) According to MCD, as far as slum|jhuggi dwellers living in Delhi are concerned, in general the jhuggies can be described as temporary or semi-permanent structures. Most of the jhuggi clusters have come up in a haphazard manner, on vacant public or private land pockets and, in certain cases even on the side of railway tracks.

(d) The Registrar General of India has reported that, according to the 1991 census, on there were 12,399 houseless households having a population of 19,366 in Delhi.

(e) and (f) According to the DDA, the details of pucca houses constructed by at are as under :—

Year	Targets	No. of Flats constructed	Shortfall
1990-91	10,466	8,846	1,620
1991-92	11,587	10,915	672
1992-93 . . .	8,424	7,876	548

(g) The DDA has reported that all registrants are expected to be allocated flats by the end of the 8th Five Year Plan period provided land and essential services such as electricity and water, are made available.

CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSE/ DWELLING UNITS IN MADHYA PRADESH

3476. SHRI DILIP SINGH JUDEV : Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government of Madhya Pradesh has submitted a project for construction of more houses|dwelling units in tribal area of Chhatisgarh Region, for homeless;

(b) if so, what action has been taken by Government in this regard;

(c) whether Government of Madhya Pradesh has also submitted a report on construction of public property through an International Bank for Construction and Development (IBCD) aid package; and

(d) if so, the reaction of the Government thereto ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI P. K. THUNGON) : (a) and (b) No, Sir.

(c) and (d) A project for urban infrastructure development in cities of Indore, Raipur, Bhopal, Jabalpur and Gwalior with World Bank assistance at a project cost of Rs. 700 crores, submitted by the State Government of Madhya Pradesh, was posed to the World Bank by the Government of India.